

Youngbohemia ADVENT Prague, Czech Republic

International Choir Festival and Competition for Children`s and Youth Choirs in Prague

Continuing from the successful spring festival “Youngbohemia Prague”, this new event for children's and youth choirs and young adult choirs will be taking place during the Advent season. This international youth festival gathers young enthusiastic singers from all over the world in beautiful Christmassy Prague.

Youngbohemia Advent gives the opportunity to young choirs to compete with other international choirs. Choirs who would only like to participate in the festival category (without rating) will give public concerts all over Prague.

The Bohemian capital – whose unique old town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site – has a long musical tradition and is the perfect place for a youth festival in the Advent season. Let yourself be charmed by the enchanted Christmas atmosphere of the city, while meeting new friends to share your love for music with.

During your stay, your group will be accommodated in a hotel of the desired category in Prague. You have the option to register for the festival (category B: concerts in churches, Christmas markets, social institutions) or for the competition (category A). At the get-together evening, all participants will be invited to perform a traditional song from their own country. The program also includes a half-day city tour of Prague's Old Town. The festival ends with an award ceremony and the performance of the community song by all the festival participants. The festival ends with the subsequent disco party.
