

Choir Festival Alta Pusteria 1 st “Green Edition” Puster Valley/Italy

25. International Choir Festival

The International Choir Festival “Alta Pusteria” is an annual event held every June in the beautiful Val Pusteria (Puster Valley). Choirs from all over the world share their love for music in spectacular alpine scenery along the Austrian border, dominated by the South Tyrolean mountains.

Given the open space availability throughout South Tyrol’s Val Pusteria, the organizers decided to take advantage of this unique scenery to plan the 1st GREEN EDITION of the festival. The festival will be taking place along the whole Alpine Valley situated at the foot of the Dolomites.

The participants will find themselves immersed in a unique landscape with an increased number of open-air concerts. These will be performed in Alpine huts as well as lakes but also in music pavilions located on the central squares of main towns.

The choirs will also have the possibility to rehearse outdoor in the Dolomites or to go to an excursion to the Lake of Braies (incl. concert).

The festival is open to choirs of all categories and offers up to sixty performances such as concerts in theaters, concert halls and churches in various small towns of the Val Pusteria.

Open-air performances are held at spectacular viewpoints in the heart of the Dolomites, such as alpine huts, music gazebos or castles.

All choirs have the possibility to perform three to six concerts. The repertoire is free to choose, all music styles are permitted and there are no compulsory songs. Furthermore, the festival offers daily get-together events: the opening concert on arrival day, the welcome event „Fiesta di Benvenuto“ on top of Plan de Coronas (2275m), three evening parties on June 17 (“Brunico in Cantata” in Brunico, “Un Brindisi con il Baranci” in San Candido and “Festa Tirolese” in Villabassa) under the motto “The scent of Tyrol”, the Choirs’ Parade in San Candido and the “Festa dell’ Arrivederci” on departure day.

Discover the wild and romantic landscape of South Tyrol and be part of this unique festival experience!
