

“International Advent Singing Festival” Vienna/Austria

International Choir Festival in Vienna’s historic town hall

Vienna is home to Johann Strauß and the Viennese Waltz, but also to other great composers such as Mozart, Beethoven and Schubert and continues to maintain the cultural and musical heritage to this day. The city offers its visitors a rich musical variety as well as masterpieces of baroque art and architecture. The Vienna International Advent Singing Festival is held for choirs from around the world during the Advent season before Christmas.

Over the past 30 years the festival has established itself to one of the most popular choral events in Vienna. The attending choirs have the possibility to perform in front of an international audience at four different concert venues: Festival concert in the historic Vienna City Hall, church (during a church or mass service), Senior Citizen Home and outdoor Christmas Market.
