

International Youth Music & Choir Festival Bratislava Bratislava/Slovakia

Music and Choir Festival with Competition for Youth Choirs, Young Adult Choirs & Orchestras

Over the past years, more than 1000 choirs and orchestras from all over the world have participated in the Youth Music Festival in the Slovakian capital, which is widely recognized as a musical city and features a rich cultural and artistic heritage.

The festival organizers invite musically inclined young people from around the world to present their talents in the beautiful city of Bratislava. The choirs and music groups may participate in a competitive or non-competitive setting. Each group will have various opportunities to perform in concert halls, beautiful churches and outdoor settings in the historical city center, all boasting exceptional acoustics. Experience history while on a sightseeing tour through the Old Town and feel the festival's slogan "music & art connect people". Make new friends from all over the world and enjoy an unforgettable stay in Bratislava!
